Dublin Police Warn About Recent Spike in Thefts from Vehicles

Community Relations Bruce Edwards from City of Dublin

Over the past week, the Dublin Division of Police has received a higher than normal amount of calls (21) concerning thefts from vehicles and in at least one case, a theft from an open garage. The vast majority of these thefts were conducted by a thief entering an unlocked vehicle. In some cases, windows were broken to gain entry.

The Dublin Police would like to remind citizens to:

COTA, Dublin agree on land swap	http://www.dispatch.com/content/stories/local/2015/06/24/COTA-Dublin-swap-land.html	The Columbus Dispatch	6.24.15	The COTA Board of Trustees voted Wednesday to swap land with Dublin for a new park-and-ride, but the No. 30 Smoky Row line will continue to operate despite previous plans to move its riders to another line. Dublin wanted to acquire the Dublin Dale Drive park-and-ride to build a road in its new Bridge Street District, so the two agencies planned a land swap. The original plan would have placed the new park-and-ride at the intersection of Bright Road and Emerald Parkway.

Steve Langworthy, the city's planning director, sent a multi-point letter opposing the proposal to the Jerome Township Planning Commission, which on Monday heard details of the project from Schottenstein Real Estate Group.

Grandview Yard getting more apartments to meet surging demand	http://www.bizjournals.com/columbus/news/2015/06/24/grandview-yard-getting-more-apartments-to-meet.html	Columbus Business First	6.24.15	The developer of Grandview Yard plans to build 166 apartments on a 2.2-acre site next to the 800 Yard St. office property that just opened. Nationwide Realty President Brian Ellis told me the development is getting driven by insatiable demand for rental housing. "We have experienced continual demand," Ellis told me, "and we haven't been able to keep up with the interest in living in Grandview Yard."
