Police: Don't Fall for IRS Scams

4 Sep

Community Relations Bruce Edwards from City of Dublin

Some Dublin residents have reported getting calls from "IRS" or "treasury agents" telling them they have overdue taxes and must pay or be arrested. This is a scam. Do not give them any money or personal information, and call Dublin Police at 614.889.1112 to report this if you get a call.

Dublin police issued a warning to parents Wednesday night: if your teens serve alcohol at a party, you could go to jail. A father and son just learned their punishment after a party that ended with the death of a teen. School Resource Officer with the Dublin Police Department, Chuck Collier, told a crowd of parents gathered at the Dublin Jerome High School for senior parent night, they can no longer turn a blind eye to what's happening. "No longer can we just stand upstairs and say 'well I wasn't in charge of that, because you are'," Collier said.

Dublin as a walkable city	https://www.linkedin.com/pulse/dublin-walkable-city-evan-weese	Linkedin Pulse	9.17.15	Having grown up in Dublin and attended Indian Run Elementary School right next to the city's small historic downtown, I have to admit I'm excited to see how the new Bridge Street District takes shape. Of course I put those feelings aside when reporting on Dublin's motivation for forming a massive $350 million-plus (private investment from developer Crawford Hoying) walkable neighborhood. It wasn't difficult to find answers. Every urban planner, consultant, city leader, business executive and Columbus-area resident I spoke with talked about the same demographic/household formation trends: Young people want to live and work in active urban settings, as do the millions of Baby Boomers who are newly empty nesters and looking to downsize.

Rain's to blame for a delay in when Route 33 will reopen over Interstate 270. The Ohio Department of Transportation now says the new and improved interchange will begin being ready for traffic Nov. 23, three days before all the relatives come for Thanksgiving. Speaking of Dublin, if you're in the construction industry the city wants to talk with you about the Bridge Street District. The city's hosting a Construction Industry Forum on Friday, Oct. 9, at the Dublin Community Recreation Center.

Representatives of a business in the 6700 block of Sawmill Road told Dublin Police that $11,200 in vehicle accessories were stolen from six vehicles in the parking lot between Sept.21 and 22.

Rain puts phase of 270-33 project behind schedule	http://www.thisweeknews.com/content/stories/dublin/news/2015/09/29/rain-puts-phase-of-270-33-project-behind-schedule.html	Dublin Villager	9.30.15	Heavy rains pushed back the anticipated opening date of U.S. Route 33 and two loop ramps at the Interstate 270-U.S. Route 33 interchange in Dublin. Work on the I-270 and U.S. 33 interchange improvements began in April. The Ohio Department of Transportation is replacing most of the loop ramps and adding one more lane in each direction on U.S. Route 33 between the interchange and the Avery-Muirfield Drive exit.
Candidates offer stands on Bridge Street District	http://www.thisweeknews.com/content/stories/dublin/news/2015/09/29/city-council-election-candidates-offer-stands-on-bridge-street-district.html	Dublin Villager	9.30.15	Opinions about the Bridge Street District vary among Dublin City Council candidates. Redevelopment plans for the Bridge Street District, which encompasses about six percent of Dublin's core, have been in the works since 2009. With the Bridge Street District, the city hopes to bring walkable, urban-style redevelopment that will draw both residents and businesses to Dublin.
Irish Festival leads city's list of award-winners	http://www.thisweeknews.com/content/stories/dublin/news/2015/09/29/irish-festival-leads-citys-list-of-award-winners.html	Dublin Villager	9.30.15	Dublin took numerous awards at the International Festivals and Events Association Convention and Expo last month. The convention, held in Tucson Sept. 21-23, recognizes creative promotional, operational and community outreach programs from festivals and events around the world. Dublin took a total of 24 awards, 17 of them for the Dublin Irish Festival.

Council lauds top credit ratings	http://www.thisweeknews.com/content/stories/dublin/news/2015/09/29/council-lauds-top-credit-ratings.html	Dublin Villager	9.30.15	Dublin City Council members last week applauded city staff members for again snagging the highest credit rating from Moody's and Fitch. In preparation for the sale of nearly $82 million in bonds, city staff members went to New York early last month for credit ratings and returned with an "Aaa" rating from Moody's Investors Service and an "AAA" from Fitch Ratings.
Higher enrollment means higher costs, but district has plan	http://www.thisweeknews.com/content/stories/dublin/news/2015/09/29/school-notes-higher-enrollment-means-higher-costs-but-district-has-plan.html	Dublin Villager	9.30.15	Enrollment growth has a significant impact on our school budget, our transportation operations, and our educational programming. In an effort to maintain reasonable class sizes, the district has exceeded its 2015-16 staffing plan as 16 additional teachers have been hired in response to the growth.
At Your Service	http://www.cityscene.columbus.com/communities/dublinlife/at-your-service/	CityScene	9.30.15	It's likely you've seen them in your neighborhood: the white trucks with the green City of Dublin logos. The crews behind those trucks are the people who repair your curbs, make sure your storm water flows easily through the drains and ensure your trees and branches get chipped into mulch when necessary. They're also the ones responsible for Dublin's renowned curb-to-curb snow removal. They help direct traffic at special events and collect leaves that fall throughout the City.

Dublin is keeping its solid credit rating even with its contribution to Bridge Park.	http://www.bizjournals.com/columbus/morning_call/2015/09/morning-roundup-ohio-state-taking-new-approach-to.html?ana=e_columbus&s=newsletter&ed=2015-09-30&u=pQxDB5/c8w9jwuel41N5Mg012a0326&t=1443625653	Columbus Business First	9.29.15	Dublin is keeping its solid credit rating even with its contribution to Bridge Park. The city has issued $32 million in bonds to pay for parking garages in the first phase of the massive development, which is largely being paid for by developer Crawford Hoying Development Partners LLC. Moody's Investors Service gave the bonds a Aa1 rating, second only to Aaa on its scale. Moody's gives its highest score to the city's general obligation rating, as does competitor Fitch Ratings.
