Dublin Police Department Holding First Ever Recruitment Day

Dublin Police Recruitment Day:

Saturday, January 30, 2016 | 11–2:30 p.m.
Dublin Justice Center | 6565 Commerce Parkway, Dublin, OH

The Dublin Police Department is currently accepting applications. Anyone interested in applying is encouraged to attend the department's first ever recruiting day on January 30. The 90-minute event will cover the application and testing process, discuss opportunities and benefits, and include a brief overview and tour of the Dublin Justice Center.

The event is not a mandatory part of the application process. Those interested in applying should visit ducpd.org to fill out an application and register for testing. Applicants must take a written examination after applying. The test will be administered in February at Dublin Columbus High School.

For more information, read the full release on the City's website.
